

As a responsible and engaged citizen of the USA, I demand FCC action banning the airing of the anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor."

Sinclair's decision to air an extremely biased and negative depiction of any candidate is in direct violation the obligations associated with using public airwaves. As the governing body charged with protecting the public interest, I demand FCC action halting the showing of this documentary.

Take into evidence this point: Sinclair is only airing this special in swing states, two weeks prior to an election that is currently too close to call. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But it is clear in this instance, that the public is not being served. Private business and individual interests are the benefactors.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
